FRONT OFFICE

ROY L. M. BOE
President

For Roy Boe, the 45-year-old president of the New York Islanders, this past hockey season was his most gratifying in the brief three-year history of the club. Now that Boe has achieved one of his two major goals, a championship for the American Basketball Association New York Nets, Roy has his sights set on his other goal, a Stanley Cup title for the New York Islanders.

Just six years ago, Roy Boe was completely involved in the garment industry with Boe Jests clothes. Then he purchased the Westchester Bulls, a farm team of the New York Football Giants, which he transferred to Long Island after one season. In 1969, Boe obtained the Nets from Arthur Brown and started a major rebuilding program, culminating with the purchase of Julius Erving and the ABA championship in 1974. In 1972, Boe continued his rapid rise in the professional sports business when he obtained an NHL franchise for the Nassau Coliseum. In just three years of major league hockey, Roy has seen his infant Islanders become the most talked about hockey club in the NHL. To his credit, the energetic Boe has acquired four of the game's top future superstars — 1972 top amateur Bill Harris, 1974 Rookie of the Year Denis Potvin, 1974 first round amateur Clark Gillies and 1975 top amateur Pat Price.

To aid in the development of these fine young prospects, Boe acquired Racquet & Rink in Farmingdale as a permanent practice site. Roy is fully committed to achieving his goal of a Stanley Cup title for the Islanders, but his past experiences in professional sports have taught him that to do so at the expense of the fans is not the Boe style. Roy promised to hold the line on ticket prices for two seasons in 1974 and is happy to keep a commitment to the people who have supported the Islanders since their inception.

WILLIAM A. TORREY
Vice President and General Manager

The man in charge of the day to day operation of the entire New York Islanders hockey club is their Vice President and General Manager — Bill Torrey. At the announcement of his signing in February of 1972, Torrey was asked how long it would take for the Long Island club to reach contender status. Torrey's answer was "You've got to take your lumps down the line, but I expect it will take about five years."

Familiar with the problems inherent with an expansion hockey club from his two-year tenure as Vice President of the Oakland Seals, the 40-year-old Montreal native was sincere in his evaluation of the time limit it would take to build a contending team. Through excellent drafting of such fine young players as Denis Potvin, Bill Harris and Clark Gillies and excellent trades like the acquisition of J. P. Parise and Jude Drouin, Torrey is well ahead of his own timetable.

In only their third NHL season, Torrey has developed a young hockey club equal to any in the NHL. Their rapid rise can be credited to Torrey's dual philosophy of building with young players and combining experience to aid in the development of the young prospects. Although last year was a tremendous success both on and off the ice, General Manager Torrey is not going to sit still and expect the same results. To his credit, the Islanders have drafted and signed Pat Price, who was rated the top amateur in 1974.

Now that the Islanders have "come of age," Torrey has set his goal on bringing the Stanley Cup to Long Island.

ALGER J. ARBOUR

Coach of the New York Islanders

On April 6, 1974, New York Islanders coach Al Arbour saw his personal streak of never having missed the playoffs in 19 years as a player and executive in professional hockey broken. In typical Arbour fashion, he said, "I guess I'll just have to begin my new streak at the end of next season."

Although many people laughed at Arbour's predication for the youthful club, few who witnessed the "Incredible Islanders" third year will ever again question an Arbour prediction. For the 42-year-old Sudbury, Ont. native, who was named Coach of the Islanders on June 10, 1973, the past season was an experience he will never forget. In just their third season in the NHL, Arbour led the Islanders to a third place finish in the tough Lester Patrick Division, equalling the points of the second-place New York Rangers, but losing out on the basis of most victories. In the opening round of the Stanley Cup playoffs, the Islanders upset their crosstown rival Rangers in a best of three series with an overtime goal in the final game at Madison Square Garden.

Following the victory over the Rangers, the Islanders met the Pittsburgh Penguins in the quarter-final series. After losing the first three games in the best of seven series, the Islanders won four straight games to defeat the Penguins and become only the second professional sports team in history to come from behind three games to none. The semi-final series against Philadelphia typified the Islanders' season. Again, the club lost the first three games, but Arbour's kids refused to die. Once again, they managed three straight victories to set up the historic seventh game in Philadelphia on May 13, 1975 with Kate Smith at the Spectrum to sing "God Bless America." The Flyers ended the Islanders' magic with a 4-1 victory in the deciding game.

For Arbour, who was named Coach of The Year by the Hockey News, the 1974-75 season was a phenomenal success, but the veteran of twelve NHL seasons with Chicago, Detroit, Toronto and St. Louis is not satisfied with just being a Stanley Cup semi-finalist. The only thing that will make Al Arbour happy is a Stanley Cup.

ADMINISTRATIVE STAFF

The newest addition to the Islanders front office staff this season is Director of Player Personnel, Ed Chadwick. The former chief amateur scout and Fort Worth Coach will assume the duties of Director of Player Personnel and assistant to Coach Al Arbour this fall.

In addition to his Player Personnel and coaching duties, Chad will also be the professional scout in charge of scouting other NHL clubs for Coach Arbour.

BEHIND THE SCENES

JIM PICKARD
Assistant Head Trainer

RON WASKE
Head Trainer

Behind the scenes are two of the most important members of the Islanders. Often overlooked when the awards are being handed out, 27-year-old head trainer Ron Waske and 25-year-old assistant trainer Jim Pickard.

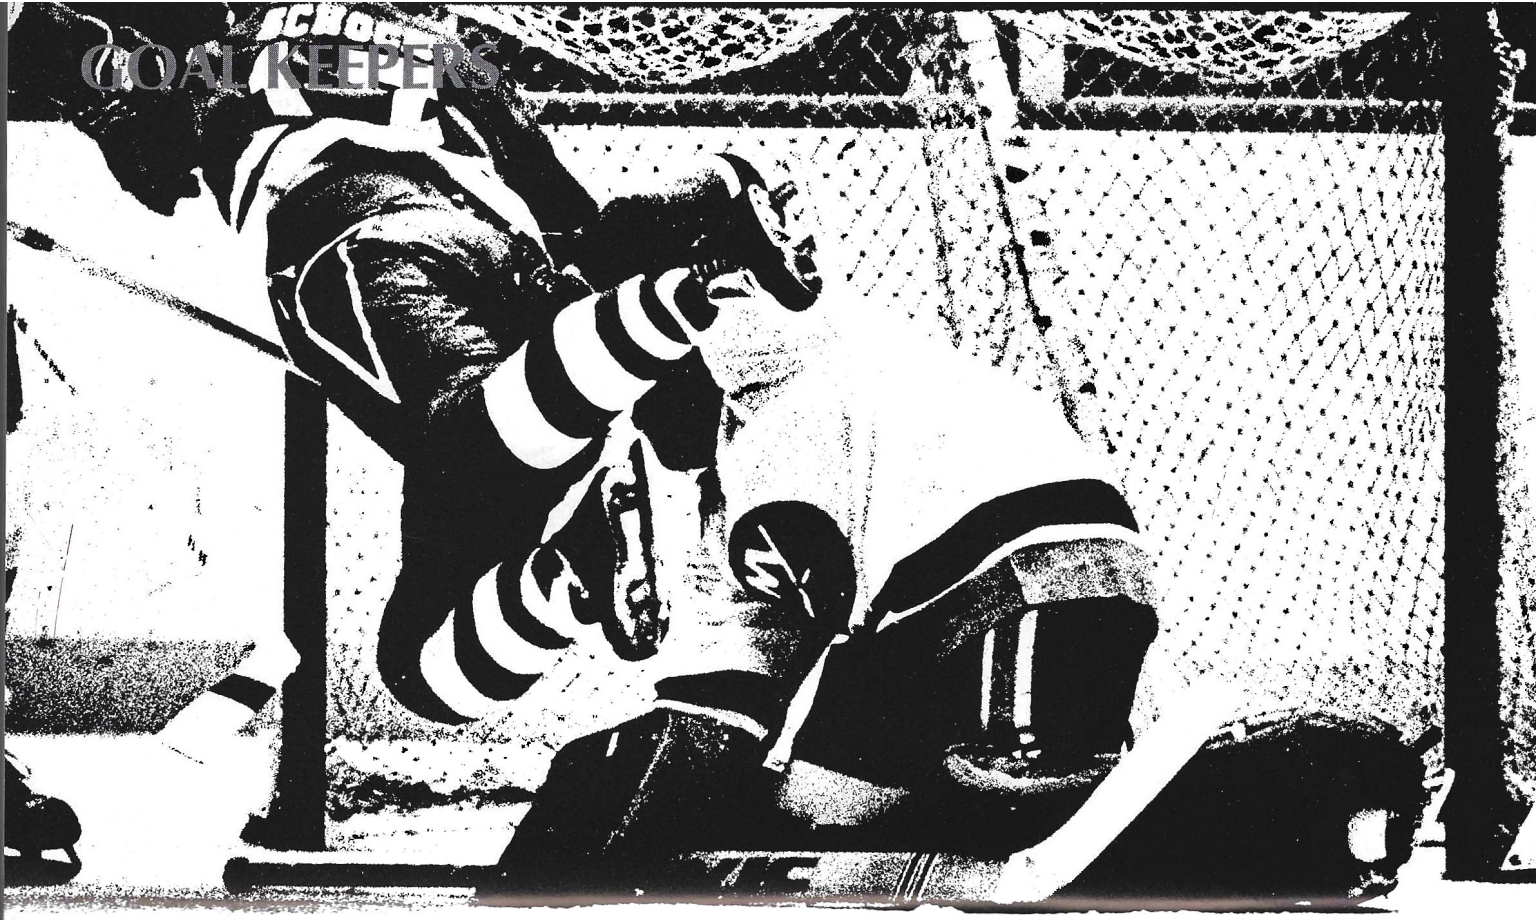

Waske, a former college hockey player with a degree in physical education from St. Lawrence University, assumed the role of head trainer at the start of the 1974-75 season. The Canton, New York native did an outstanding job keeping the Islanders injury record one of the lowest in the NHL. Prior to joining the Islanders, Waske worked for the AHL Jacksonville Barons. Ron and his wife Peg have a young daughter Amy.

Jim Pickard, the former equipment manager of the California Golden Seals, has been with the Islanders since their inception, except to enter private business in the 1973-74 season. Jim is primarily responsible for the daily equipment needs of the players and will be working closely with Ron Waske in the injury department. Jim and his wife Sue have two children, Laurie and Benjamin.

Over the summer, both Ron and Jim were active in the Islanders summer hockey school, both instructing and keeping the injuries to a minimum.

DEFENDERS

FORTIER, DAVID EDWARD

Born: Sudbury, Ontario, June 17, 1951

Defense. Shoots left. 5'11", 190 lbs.

Last amateur club:

St. Catharines Black Hawks (Jrs.)

Originally drafted by Toronto in second round of 1971 Amateur Draft and traded to Philadelphia at the end of 1973-74 season...Islanders made him their selection in 1974 intra-league draft...This past season was Fortier's first full year in the NHL...Will never forget his goal against Montreal in late March that tied game in last minute...Cut his penalty minutes down and scored six goals, third highest among defensemen...Teamed with both Denis Potvin and Bert Marshall...Dave was often used on left wing to check opposition's big line...Carries the puck very well, but must improve in his own defensive end...Dave was plus 13 for the season...A native of Sudbury, Ontario, like Coach Al Arbour, Dave spends his summers instructing at the Al Arbour Hockey School in Sudbury...Dave and his wife Wilma have two daughters, Stephanie and Jennifer...

HART, GERALD WILLIAM

Born: Flin Flon, Manitoba, January 1, 1948

Defense. Shoots left. 5'9", 190 lbs.

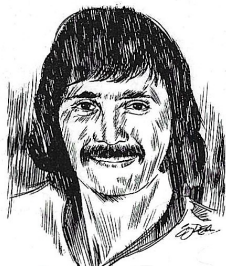

Last amateur club: Flin Flon Bombers (Jrs.)

The best named player on the New York Islanders, Hart was the Long Island candidate for the William Masterton Trophy in 1974-75...Last season was most productive offensively for Gerry with four goals and 14 assists...Will never forget his game-winning goal in sixth game of Stanley Cup semi-finals against Philadelphia...Gerry was captain of Flin Flon junior team that included Flyers Clarke and Leach...The all-time penalty minute leader on the Islanders with 362 PIM...One of only three original Islanders from the 1972 Expansion team... "Hartie" is the smallest defenseman on the Islanders, but is the most aggressive and one of the best at blocking shots...For the second straight season, teamed with Denis Potvin...Was plus 28 this season...In the off-season, Gerry did public relations work with the Long Island Tomahawks of the NLL...Gerry is a bachelor who enjoys gourmet cooking and plays tennis to stay in shape in the off-season...

LEWIS, DAVID

Born: Kindersley, Sask., July 3, 1953
 Defense. Shoots left. 6'2", 205 lbs.
 Last amateur club: Saskatoon Blades (Jrs.)

The 33rd player drafted in the 1973 Amateur Draft, "Big Lewie" stepped straight from junior hockey onto the Islanders defense corps...For the past two seasons, Lewis teamed with Bert Marshall to form one of the best defensive combinations in the NHL..."Lewie" finished the season plus 8...Played junior hockey with Bob Bourne and Pat Price...An excellent athlete, Lewis was quarterback on his high school football team and his favorite target was end Bob Bourne...Had his most productive offensive season last year with five goals and 14 assists, including his 2nd game winning NHL goal...Missed 12 games his first season with a fractured cheek bone suffered against Toronto...Islander goaltenders Smith and Resch know that Dave will always be in front of the net taking the man...For the second straight season, Lewis instructed at the Islanders Summer Hockey School...Dave married the former Brenda Atwell just prior to the start of the 1974-75 season...Could be teamed with former junior partner Pat Price on Islander defense this season...

MARSHALL, ALBERT LEROY

Born: Kamloops, B. C., November 22, 1943

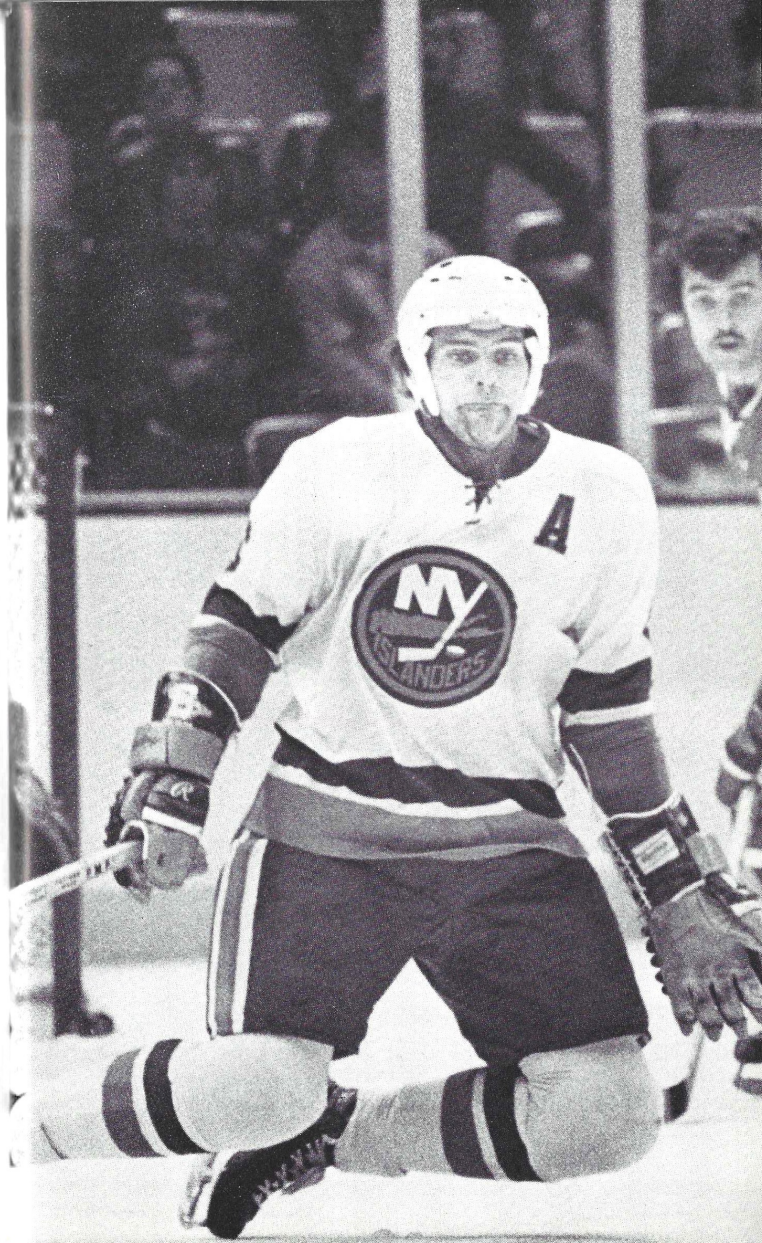

Defense. Shoots left, 6'2", 195 lbs.

Last amateur club:

Edmonton Oil Kings (Jrs.)

The senior member of the Islanders defense corps...Marshall was obtained from the New York Rangers in the 1973 Intra-League Draft...A former captain of the California Golden Seals, Marshall is one of the Islanders alternate captains...Although injuries have played a major role in Bert's entire NHL career, this past season, he played 77 games..."Moose" had his best offensive season with two goals and 28 assists for 30 points...He also managed two goals and five assists for seven points during Stanley Cup playoffs, including the assist on Westfall's goal in the seventh game against Pittsburgh of the quarter-final series...Bert is happiest playing a defensive style of hockey and is probably the best shot-blocker currently in the NHL...Can play either the right or left side, Bert enjoys working with a young defenseman...Often handles practice for Coach Al Arbour...Finished the season plus 18...When not on the ice, Bert can be found practicing his booming serve on the tennis court...Bert and his wife Diane and daughter Dayna make northern California their permanent address...

POTVIN, JEAN RENE

Born: Ottawa, Ontario, March 25, 1949
 Defense. Shoots right. 5'11" 188 lbs.
 Last amateur club: Ottawa 67's (Jrs.)

The older brother of Denis arrived on the Islanders in a trade with Philadelphia for Terry Crisp in 1973...One of the few right-handed shots on the team, Jean played right defense on the power-play and some right wing...Enjoyed his best offensive season with nine goals and 24 assists for 33 points, second among all defensemen behind his brother Denis. Jean's six power play goals was second-highest on the team and his four game-winning goals was also second-highest...One of the hardest shots on the team, Jean must work on getting it away quicker...After scoring winning goal against Kansas City, Jean suffered a pinched nerve in his neck...A karate expert, Jean and his wife Lorraine have purchased a home on Long Island...Over the summer, the two Potvins sponsored a charity golf tournament for youth hockey in the greater Ottawa area...

PRICE, SHAUN PATRICK

Born: Nelson, B. C., March 24, 1955
 Defense. Shoots left. 6'2", 200 lbs.
 Last amateur club: Saskatoon Blades (Jrs.)

For the fourth straight season, the Islanders have signed their Number One Amateur Draft...At 18 years old, Price was the outstanding junior player in Canada, but was never drafted by an NHL club because he signed with Vancouver of the WHA...The former Saskatoon Blade junior teammate of Bob Bourne and Dave Lewis was not happy in the WHA and made himself eligible for the 20-year-old draft in 1975...An offensive-styled defenseman, Price scored 27 goals and 68 assists for 95 points with 147 penalty minutes and was a first All-Star defenseman in the WCHL...Grew up in Nelson, B.C. with Buffalo Sabre Danny Gare...Price scored five goals and 29 assists for Vancouver of WHA but didn't get all of the ice time he wanted...This season, Pat will possibly team with junior partner Dave Lewis on the Islander defense...Needs to improve his defensive capabilities, which he and Coach Al Arbour will be working on...Pat plays the guitar and teaches tennis in the summer in his Nelson, B. C. home...One of the few eligible bachelors on this year's Islanders...

DROUIN, JUDE

Born: Mont-Louis, Que., October 28, 1948
Center. Shoots right, 5'9", 160 lbs.

Last amateur club:
Montreal Canadiens (Jrs.)

Joined the Islanders on January 9, 1975 in Philadelphia, where he scored his first goal as an Islander which defeated the Flyers in Philadelphia for the first time...As a rookie, Jude set record for most assists in a season (52) which was broken by Dionne the following season...A right-handed shooting center, Drouin finished the season with 18 goals and 36 assists for 54 points, sixth-best on the Islanders...Drouin led all Islanders in playoff scoring with six goals and 12 assists for 18 points...Played on line with Ed Westfall and Minnesota teammate J. P. Parise...Scored two of the most important goals in Islander history - a 200 footer into an empty net to clinch Game No.5 against Pittsburgh and the winning goal in overtime against Philadelphia in Game No.4 of semi-final series...One of the best faceoff men on the Islanders...A classic centerman, Jude needs to shoot more often when he has the opportunity...Jude ended the season plus 8...Jude and his wife Debbie have two sons, Jason and Todd and a new baby daughter Ashlee-Renee born in late August.

GILLIES, CLARK

Born: Moose Jaw, Sask., April 7, 1954
Left Wing. Shoots left. 6'3", 220 lbs.
Last amateur club: Regina Pats (Jrs.)

The Islanders first pick in the 1974 Amateur Draft was left wing Clark Gillies, whose teammates immediately tabbed him "Jethro"...One of the biggest players in the NHL at 6'3", 220 lbs., Clark will always be remembered for the way he destroyed Dave Schultz in the fifth game of the Stanley Cup Playoffs in Philadelphia...Played junior hockey with the Memorial Cup Champion Regina Pats in 1974...Led all Islanders in power play goals with eight and recorded 25 goals and 22 assists for 47 points...Played on a line with Billy Harris and Bob Bourne...He and Billy Harris were only two players to play all 80 games...An excellent skater, Clark must improve his puck handling...Benefited from instruction by J. P. Parise, particularly moving the puck from the Islanders defensive zone...Clark played his best hockey in the second half, after scoring only 11 goals in the first half of the season... "Jethro's" most memorable goal defeated the Rangers in the first game of the Stanley Cup Playoffs...Clark married the former Pam Goettler in Moose Jaw, Sask., during the summer...

HARRIS, WILLIAM EDWARD

Born: Toronto, Ontario, January 29, 1952
 Right Wing. Shoots left. 6'2", 195 lbs.
 Last amateur club: Toronto Marlboros (Jrs.)

The first player ever drafted by the Islanders from the Amateur ranks was right wing Billy Harris... "Harry-O" is the all-time leading scorer for the club with 76 goals and 86 assists for 162 points and still holds the single season record for most goals with 28... Harris is the fourth leading Iron-Man in the NHL with 236 consecutive games played since he joined the Islanders in 1972... Harris shoots left, but plays the "offwing" or right side... One of the best two-way players on the club, "Harry-O" often kills penalties and is excellent at taking faceoffs... Harris was plus 3 for the season... A streak scorer, Billy had 20 goals before mid-season, but then went 22 games without a goal and still finished second in scoring to Denis Potvin.... Harris led the club in game-winning goals with five and posted four power play goals... Signed a new three-year contract in June... Harris is single and an avid tennis player in the off-season.

One of the most pleasant surprises has been the development of "Knuckles" Nystrom into a goal scorer...The former third-round amateur pick of the Islanders in 1972 led all Islanders in goal scoring this season with 27...The big right wing was born in Sweden and moved to Kamloops at age four...Playing on a line with center Andre St. Laurent and left wing Garry Howatt, Nystrom had a career high of 55 points, third best on the club, including three game-winning goals and two game-tying goals...Bob currently holds the Islander single game penalty minute record with 25...Turned pro in 1972 with Islander teammates Glenn Resch and Garry Howatt...Along with Garry Howatt, Nystrom is part of the Dynamic Duo Fan Club, which numbers over 200 members...Possesses the heaviest shot on the team...Bob must work at getting the puck on net more consistently...Ended the season plus 17...A honeymoon trip to Hawaii capped the summer for the Nordic blond who married the former Michelle Pantiel of Long Island...

J. P.!--J. P.!--J. P.!--immediately became the chant for the 14,865 fans upon the arrival of Jean-Paul Parise from the Minnesota North Stars...The veteran pro was part of the trade that saw the Islanders acquire Jude Drouin and J.P. Parise for Craig Cameron, Ernie Hicke and Doug Rombough...A veteran of the 1972 Team Canada series and one of the best cornermen in the NHL, J.P. proved a vital cog in the Islanders offensive machine...Placed on a line with Ed Westfall and Jude Drouin in the second half of the season, Parise scored the historic goal to beat the Rangers in the first playoff round, setting an NHL record for the shortest overtime - eleven seconds.In the second half of the season, the tough left wing scored 14 goals and 16 assists for 30 points and then led the club in goal scoring during the playoffs with eight...Helped Coach Arbour working with young left wings Howatt and Gillies...Originally property of the Boston Bruins, J.P. was drafted by Oakland in the original Expansion Draft, but was sold to Toronto and finally to Minnesota in 1967...Will play his 600th NHL game early this season and needs 4 more PIM for his 500th NHL PIM...Played junior hockey with linemate Ed Westfall in Niagara Falls...J.P. spent the summer as the head instructor of the New York Islanders summer hockey school...

Played his first full season in the NHL this year ...Islanders fourth-round selection in the 1973 Amateur Draft...Split 1973-74 season between Fort Worth and Long Island...Playing on a line with Garry Howatt and Bob Nystrom, Andre scored 14 goals and 27 assists, both personal NHL highs...Nephew of former NHL star Dollard St. Laurent...Along with Jude Drouin, they are only two right-handed shooting centers on the Islanders...Very aggressive, Andre accumulated 60 minutes in penalties...Ended the season with one of the best plus records on the club, plus 22...Carries the puck very well, but must work on setting up his linemates...An excellent golfer, the 22-year-old bachelor can be found on the golf links in his Montreal home during the off-season...

Ralph came to the Islanders from the Detroit organization in January, 1973...The big center's first Islanders contest was the celebrated 9-7 victory over Boston...Stewie holds the CHL record for most goals in a game with five...Although his goal production dipped slightly, his 40 points almost equalled his career high of 43 set in 1973-74...Particularly effective on the power play, Ralph scored six power play goals, tying, Westfall and J. Potvin for second place in that category...Co-led the NHL in shorthanded goals with Bobby Clarke in 1973-74, each with five...As the swing centerman, Ralph played between Clark Gillies and Billy Harris, scoring three goals and three assists in 13 playoff games...Was particularly effective in replacing Bob Bourne in quarter-final series against Pittsburgh with two goals and one assist in five games...Originally Montreal Canadiens property, Stewie was acquired by Vancouver in the 1970 Expansion Draft and then traded to Detroit in March 1972 for Jim Neikamp...Excellent on faceoffs and deadly on breakaways with his wrist shot, Stewart still needs to improve his defensive checking...Ralph is single and in the summer months was an instructor at the New York Islanders summer hockey school...

TROTTIER, BRYÁN

BORN: Val Marie, Saskatchewan,
July 17, 1956
Center. Shots left. 5'11", 195 lbs.
Last amateur club:
Lethbridge Broncos (Jr.)

The second pick in the 1974 Amateur Draft for the New York Islanders was 17-year-old Bryan Trottier. . . Trottier was the Islanders choice in the underage draft. Started junior hockey when 16 years old with Swift Current of WCHL and played two years on same line with Dave "Tiger" Williams of Toronto . . . Rather than turning him pro, Islanders kept Trottier in junior hockey last season . . . Played under former Islander scout and coach Earl Ingarfield last season and was Most Valuable Player in the WCHL . . . Played for Canadian team that was runnerup to Russians in World Junior Tournament in Winnipeg and was voted MVP for Canadian club, scoring five goals and two assists in four outings, including hat trick against U.S. junior club . . . Selected to play on Western Canada All-Star club that defeated Team Canada '74 . . . During the summer, Bryan worked with his father on their cattle ranch in Val Marie, Saskatchewan. . .

TERRY GRAY

Coach of Fort Worth Texans

Terry Gray, the former chief professional scout for the New York Islanders, has been named Coach of the New York Islanders top minor league development club, the Fort Worth Texans.

For Gray, a 37-year-old veteran of 19 years in professional hockey, this will be his third minor league coaching position. In 1970-71, the St. Louis Blues loaned Gray to the Montreal Canadiens, where he was made player-coach of the American Hockey League Voyageurs, guiding them to second-place in the Eastern Division standings behind the Providence Reds. The following season, 1971-72, Gray coached the Columbus Seals of the International Hockey League.

For the first time this season, the Islanders will be sharing the operation of their CHL franchise with the Los Angeles Kings of the NHL. Gray will be responsible for the future development of both Los Angeles Kings and New York Islanders prospects.

Gray, who was assistant to Coach Ed Chadwick in his last professional season in 1973-74, is looking forward to his newest coaching challenge. One of the most popular players in the history of Fort Worth hockey, Terry is looking forward to bringing an exciting brand of hockey to the Texas area.

Besides his responsibilities to the parent organizations of the Islanders and Kings, Gray will be setting his sights on building a contending team in Fort Worth.
